REACH TENTATIVE AGREEMENT ON EIGHT HOUR LAW TEST CASE

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 24.—A tentative agreement on a test case of the Adamson law has been reached by the attorneys of the railroads and the government, who have been in conference here yesterday and today. The agreement has been forwarded to Attorney General Gregory at Washington, and the conference here will await his action upon it.

Announcement of the tentative agreement was made today by the attorneys participating in the conference who said they were not ready to state its terms. The hearing before Judge John C. Pollock, in Kansas City, Kansas, on the injunction suit brought by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway will not be held, it was said until final action on the agreement is taken. Meanwhile witnesses for the government and for the Santa Fe are being detained in Judge Pollock's court.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—Under a tentative agreement arranged, said today to have been made between department of justice officials and railroad attorneys, the government will not insist on railroads putting into effect provisions of the Adamson act until the supreme court has determined the laws constitutionality. The measure becomes effective January 1, but prosecutions for violations would be withheld. The agreement is conditional on the ability of counsel for the government and railroads, who are in Kansas City today to appear before the federal court there in the Santa Fe suit, to decide on what case should be appealed to the supreme court for the test.

The agreement also would provide that railroads should not file new suits attacking the Adamson law pending the supreme court's decision and should not institute further action if the law be held valid. It would not seek to prevent effort to obtain legislation amending the Adamson act, however.

SITUATION DELICATE

Washington, Nov. 24.—Revival of sensational rumors of renewal of ruthless submarine warfare by Germany and consequent action by the United States, were met today by the statement of officials here that the situation while delicate was absolutely unchanged and would be until the United States had gathered all the evidence on recent attacks. It made clear that a severance of diplomatic relations would follow any violation of the pledges from Berlin.

"The definite answer, in connection with the manufacture of dyestuffs in America," he concluded, "is that the present condition of the dyestuff supply is very satisfactory, and the future outlook is still more satisfactory in that we will make more colors, and everything indicates that the larger part of the business will remain in the hands of American manufacturers even after the war, instead of in the hands of the European manufacturers, who in former years have had a practical monopoly of this business."

TRAIN PLOWS INTO HOTEL

Upper Sandusky, Nov. 24.—By remarkable chance no one was seriously injured when the Steel City Express, a fast Chicago to Pittsburgh passenger train on the Pennsylvania railroad, plunged through a derailer at Forest, near here, and ripped its way into the Forest Hotel in a blinding snow storm early today.

The train, known as Number 136, was running fast when the Big Four railroad crossing was reached and the engineer could not see that the block signal for the crossing was set against him, so severe was the storm which was raging.

The engine turned over on its side as it plunged into the hotel, which was badly damaged. The tender and mail car followed the engine. The seven coaches remained upon the tracks.

The only person hurt was the mail clerk, whose name has not been learned, and he was only slightly injured.

FIERCE FIGHTING MARKS CAMPAIGN IN THE BALKANS

London, Nov. 24.—Virtual completion of the Teutonic conquest of Tille-Wallachia is announced today by Berlin. Orsova and Turnu Severin on the Danube have been captured by the Austro-German forces which have broken the resistance of the Rumanians in this section of Western Rumania.

No mention is made of the booty taken or of the fate of the Rumanian forces which were defending the Orsova region. The retreat of the forces is assumed to have been cut off by the recent capture by General Von Falkenhayn's armies of Craiova and with it the only main line railroad leading eastward.

Pushing eastward from the Jiu Valley after their capture of Craiova, the Austro-German forces are now announced as approaching the Alt Valley. It is along this valley that the Rumanians apparently have elected to make their next stand. Bucharest yesterday reported a withdrawal of the Rumanians from the Jiu region and announced that they were holding their own in the Alt Valley, where a Teutonic force is driving from the northern Rumanian border in a converging attack with the forces from the west.

Simultaneously a movement has been started presumably by the Bulgarians which may prove of notable importance. Bucharest reports an attempt by hostile forces to cross the Danube at Zimintza 35 miles southwest of Giurgiu on the railroad leading to Bucharest. This move, if successful, would mean a cutting in far behind the present Rumanian line along the Alt, Zimintza is 70 miles southwest of Bucharest.

On the other hand the Russians have made a countermove in Dobrudja, Petrograd announces, and are pushing south and have reached Lake Tashaul, about 12 miles north of Constanza, which is the Black Sea terminal of the railroads from Tchernavoda, and have crossed the Kartal river. Berlin announces a battle in this region, declaring however that the Russians were thrown back from advanced positions.

Both east and west of Monastir on the Macedonian front, the entente armies are pressing the German-Bulgarian lines hard and making further advances, according to the French war office announcement today. Berlin announces the repulse of local attacks by entente troops north-west and northeast of Monastir.

ALLIES CLAIM GAINS

Paris, Nov. 24.—Entente forces on the Macedonian front are making progress in their attacks on the German-Bulgarian lines, according to today's war office announcement. The gain of further ground during the continuation of the battle east of Monastir is claimed while to the west the Italians, continuing their progress have reached Nijipole.

TEUTONS TAKE TOWNS

Berlin, Nov. 24.—(By wireless to Sayville).—Heavy firing began north of the Ancre yesterday afternoon, the war office announces, and subsequently the British made several attacks but were unable to reach the German positions.

REPORT HEAVY FIGHTING

Sofia, Thursday, Nov. 23.—(Via London, Nov. 24).—Heavy fighting in the Lake Prespa region, on the Macedonian front west of the Monastir district, is reported in today's official statement by the war office. Hostile attacks were unsuccessful both east and west of the lake. Near Bucharest, Nov. 24.—(Via London).—Rumanian forces have assured the offensive in the province of Dobrudja, says the official statement issued today by the Rumanian department and have advanced along the entire front, capturing several towns about fifteen miles north of the Tchernavoda-Constanza railroad line.

In the Oltenia valley the statement adds, the Rumanians have withdrawn from the left bank of the Oltetz river.

GEORGETOWN LIVERYMAN ACQUITTED

The case and trial was regarded as one of the most sensational ever held in Brown county, and attracted many visitors.

The prosecution had contended that it was Sanders who shot and killed Wahl, a wealthy farmer, from ambush, as the latter was preparing to enter the yard of his home in his automobile. Judge E. E. Corn, of Ironton heard the case.

Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in "Romeo and Juliet" Columbia Tonight

"Never has a 'Juliet' been dressed as magnificently as Miss Bayne is dressed in the screen production of 'Romeo and Juliet.' The statement comes from venerable Leonard Grover, in whose theatres Adelaide Neilson, Mary Anderson and other great Juliets have played. He asserts that no actress who has ever essayed the part has been arrayed in the regal splendor that envelops Miss Bayne in the eight-reel motion picture production of Shakespeare's great drama. The costumes of Francis X. Bushman as 'Romeo' are equally rich, and those of the remainder of the cast are in keeping with them.

Romeo first sees Juliet in a ball gown of silver tissue over which is a tabor overdress of white chiffon, heavily beaded with silver and festooned with many crystal strands. The gown has a head-dress of pearls. For her visit to Friar Laurence's cell Juliet wears a cloak of folds on folds of navy blue tissue heavily beaded with gold flowers, the design reaching up to the fluted hood and down to the tip of the sweeping train. She is borne to the tomb in a shimmering gown of silver tissue, its hand-embroidered flowers, outlined in silver thread, the tabor festooned with pearls. On her head is a simple wreath of silver handworked flowers woven with pearls.

Mr. Bushman, as "Romeo," wears "Juliet" in a costume having a tunic of gold tissue, with a raised floral design in pink velvet, with double sleeves, the inner one fitted to the arm, the outer one falling in folds exposing the sheer gold tissue lining.

Judge Thomas To Hear Murder Case

Heavy demands are now being made upon the services of Judge Thomas, common pleas court, this city, who returned Thursday evening from Ravenna, Portage county, where he presided over the common pleas court of that city for several days. Chief Justice Nichols, Ohio Supreme court, Friday, asked Judge Thomas to come to Columbus next week to hear the testimony in a first degree murder case. While at Ravenna, Judge Thomas heard eight cases in equity; among them being several extraordinary ones. Judge George F. Robinson, the regular judge of Portage county, was at Youngstown during the time Judge Thomas was at Ravenna. Monday Judge Thomas will go to Waverly to preside over the Pike county court of common pleas for three days, after which he will go to Columbus to hear the first degree murder case.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends who were so kind and consoling to us during the sickness and death of our beloved son Homer. We desire to thank in a special manner Rev. Oakley and the singers from Christian church for their kindness as well as Undertaker Daehler. Also for the many beautiful flowers. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Oakes and Family. adv 24-1

The police received a long distance telephone message from the Fostoria, O., authorities. Friday afternoon stating that J. B. Quikell, the optician, who is in the local city prison with a bad case of "D. T.'s", no longer has any relatives living in that city. His wife is supposed to be at Fremont, O.

CHECK AND ABORT A BAD COLD

In Five Hours With MENTHO-LAXENE.

You Buy It Concentrated and Mix With Pint of Syrup.

Doubtless every reader recalls having neglected a slight cold until in 24 hours it settled into a "Bad Cold" and then about 72 hours of distress, discomfort, if not weeks of bronchitis or pneumonia or catarrh. Now confess, if you've had such an experience, and take time by the forelock by preparing to check and abort colds, coughs, catarrh, difficult breathing, watering eyes and painful headaches. It can be done by taking Mentho-Laxene either in its raw state—ten drops to the dose—or by making a granulated sugar syrup and mixing in a pint bottle or jar. A pint will last a whole family for a long time and keeps every member free from the distressing after-effects of a bad cold. Mentho-Laxene is guaranteed to please or money back by The Blackburn Products Co., Dayton, Ohio, and any well stocked druggist can supply you. Don't take a substitute. There is really nothing to compare with Mentho-Laxene.

THE LOVELIEST GIFTS OF ALL

ARE THE GIFTS OF JEWELRY

To make Christmas joyous, see that you select jewelry gifts from our great holiday stock. Select your gifts, have them engraved while we still can give you the careful, unhurried engraving that has made us favorably known, and leave them in our safety vaults until Christmas. Then call for them and receive them fresh and new, and properly and artistically cased and wrapped.

Christmas jewelry is the prized gift, but let us caution you against purchasing carelessly. A fine diamond weighing a carat cannot be purchased for $97.50, as mail order advertisements would have you believe. Misrepresentation in one detail implies dishonesty in many. We can and do sell at approximately as low a price as mail order houses, QUALITY AND SERVICE CONSIDERED. Of us you can purchase and see the goods before you buy. You can pay in small sums instead of sending in your money all at one time. There is no delay or substitution, and in case of dissatisfaction we adjust with you personally and at once, instead of long and tedious correspondence intended to wear out your patience.

We urge you to buy your Christmas Jewelry Gifts of us early, not because we shall not have the goods and the sales people to take care of you if you delay, for we shall. Early buying gives you the better selection, easier payments, and it takes the Christmas problem off your mind. That is our object, to suit your convenience and assure your safety in any purchase.

Gold Wrist Watches continue to grow in popularity. We have over fifty varieties and patterns to choose from, priced at $10, $13.50, $15, $18, $20, $25, $33 and $45.

Turkey Dinner To Be Given The Poor

Rev. James E. Dibert, of the Wesley Hall Mission, is busy making preparations for the annual Thanksgiving dinner for the poor children, especially indigent children.

The Mission last Thanksgiving fed 45 persons, and an equal number is expected to be provided for this year among residents of alley houses and shantyboats.

The dinner will be served at the Mission dining-room, commencing at 11 o'clock Thanksgiving morning. Contributions of meats, bread, fruits, canned goods, etc., will be thankfully received.

Free tickets will be distributed among the worthy poor, the first installment to be given out at the Mission Sunday school next Sunday. Persons knowing of poor people in their particular locality may apply to Rev. Mr. Dibert and they will be given tickets to distribute to them.

Salary Is Boosted

Branch Rickey, business manager of the St. Louis Browns and who all the St. Louis papers are touting to succeed Garry Herrmann on the National Baseball Commission, has gone to Houston, Tex., where he will hunt ducks for several weeks.

Mr. Rickey was recently given a substantial increase in salary by owners of the St. Louis club.

The S. Monroe & Son Company's forces were tarring Linden avenue Friday and the newly paved street will be opened to travel this evening.

UNNATURALLY TIRED

Some men and many women feel tired all the time. This is not natural. Fatigue following work or great exertion is normal but to be constantly tired indicates a diseased condition, usually thin blood. Backache generally accompanies this state of the system. Such sufferers are usually pale but not necessarily thin. In blonds the transparency of the skin is increased; in brunettes it is decreased and the complexion becomes muddy. The eyelids become a grayish blue. This condition of thin blood, which doctors call anemia, is a dangerous one if allowed to progress but with proper treatment it may be speedily corrected. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain just the elements needed to build up the blood and restore the lost color and vitality. New energy circulates through the system with the enriched blood, the heart stops its alarming palpitating, color returns to cheeks and lips.

Nothing more is needed except sunlight, good air, proper food and rest. If you do not know exactly what rules to follow in these matters write today to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for booklets on the blood and diet. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Dexter avenue, which will be the last street paved this year.

Thanksgiving certainly is as important to the OUTER as to the INNER man—A good suit or overcoat is as essential to the comfort and well-being of the first as a good dinner is to the latter. The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Nov. 24.—Covering of short commitments made during yesterday's market and a moderate revival of public interest were the sustaining influences of today's broader operations. Total sales were estimated at 1,250,000 shares.

Substantial recoveries from final prices of the preceding session were made at today's opening, mainly in industrials and copper. These ranged from 4 to 14 in Lackawanna Steel, Crucible Steel, Airbrake, American Locomotive and Chile Copper, with gains of a point for Reading and Union Pacific. At Atlantic Gulf and West Indies rose over two points and Gulf States Steel ten points. Other strong and active issues included Camille Leather, U. S. Rubber and Curt Products. The inquiry for stocks came largely from commission houses representing out of town interests.

With few exceptions early gains were materially extended, copper leading the advance. U. S. Steel also rose briskly on confident absorption and other industrials were free from the depression of the previous day. Gulf States Steel made an extreme recovery of 17 1/2 points from its recent severe decline and specialties comprising paper issues, sugars and fertilizers were in demand. Equipments kept pace with the rising movement but Bethlehem Steel yielded 19 points, with heaviness in Canadian Pacific, although other high grade rails continued to improve. Chile 7 1/2 at an advance of four points again featured the head market.

Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies broke over 5 points at midday, following the declaration of the five per cent initial dividend. Utilities were strong, notably Montana Power, Ohio Gas and Philadelphia Company at gains of 2 to 3 1/2 points.

Steel and minor rails imparted further stability to the general list in the last hour, with additional gains in specialties. The closing was strong.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Wheat prices underwent a fresh setback today influenced largely by attention to the possibility of an embargo. Opening prices which ranged from 1 1/4 to 1 1/2, lower with December at 1.70 1/4 to 1.80 and May at 1.85 to 1.95 were followed by sharp further losses, and then something of a reaction. Subsequently, intimations that some export business was being done led to a pronounced rally, which, however, failed to hold. The close was weak 1 1/4 to 2 1/4 net lower with Dec. at 1.78 1/4 to 1.78 1/2 and May at 1.83 1/4 to 1.83 1/2. Corn eased off with wheat. After opening unchanged to 1 1/2 lower, the market underwent a moderate sag all around.

Word that a good export business had developed tended later to harden prices. The close, though, was heavy at 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 net decline. In oats as in other cereals, sellers had the advantage. Demand was only of a scattered character. Higher quotations on hogs lifted provisions. Most of the trading was in land.

A FINE TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

Easy To Make And Costs Little.
Catarrh is such an insidious disease and has become so prevalent during the past few years that its treatment should be understood by all.

Science has fully proved that Catarrh is a constitutional disease and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Sprays, inhalers, salves and nose douches seldom if ever give lasting benefit and often drive the disease further down the air passages and into the lungs.

If you have Catarrh or Catarrhal deafness or head-noises, go to your druggist and get one ounce of Purmin (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar, stir until dissolved, take one tablespoonful 4 times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head-noises, clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and mucus stop dropping into the throat.

This treatment has a slight tonic action which makes it especially effective in cases where the blood has become thin and weak. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every person who wishes to be free from this destructive disease should give this treatment a trial. Fisher & Streich can supply you.

Will Never Be Without This Simple Laxative

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieved Her Baby When Nothing Else Would.

Little Max Pendergrast is now four years old, and a fine healthy boy. When but a tiny baby, he suffered a great deal from constipation. His mother, Mrs. Carl W. Pendergrast, Red Key, Ind., heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, obtained a bottle of it from the drug store, and with it was able to quickly correct this condition.

Mrs. Pendergrast says Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has saved her from calling the doctor many times, and that she will never be without a bottle of it in the house to use when needed. She found it equally effective as a laxative for herself and other members of the family.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, pleasant to the taste, mild in action and positive in effect. It does not gripe or strain, and contains no opiate or narcotic drug. It is the ideal family laxative, mild and pleasant for baby, yet acting quickly on the strongest constitution. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

Your Chance Girls, Please Don't Crowd

The Times was authorized by a local shoemaker Friday to announce that he is on the market for a wife and that he is dead earnest about wanting to get married and that before the first of the year, if possible.

The young man in question is 39 years of age, good looking, a neat dresser, and says he is a person of good habits, a church-goer and can furnish the best of references. He is anxious to establish a home and desires an honest woman for a housekeeper and life-mate. He prefers a dark-complexioned young woman or widow of the age of 25 years. All communications should be addressed "J. S." in care of Times office.

DRAGGING AROUND, CONSTIPATED, BILIOUS?

You'll Feel A Remarkable Difference in 30 Minutes After Taking a Wineglassful of Tollo Water

Feeling tired and nervous, tongue covered with a furry coat, skin sallow, constipated. Your food feels as heavy as lead. It all comes from your liver. Too much rich food has choked the bile tubes; you become constipated and bile is being absorbed into the system.

Tollo Water from Dawson Springs, Kentucky, will give quick relief. Get a 15-cent bottle from the drug store—pour about a third of a tumblerful in a glass of plain water and drink it before breakfast. In a few minutes it will flush—really wash out—the bile and waste from the system and start you feeling fine. Then you can eat all you want without feeling stuffed or bloated. You will know again the pleasure of an active energetic life.

It will be to every man's advantage to be on intimate terms with our tailoring department. Our Made-To-Measure Suits always speak favorably of a man, for they are fashioned for critical eyes and tailored to please by expert garment makers residing in this city and designed by a cutter with years of experience. Then to the price proposition—our suit patterns (one of a kind) were purchased before the advance in prices and we are giving our customers the benefit of our foresight. If you have not purchased your fall and winter suit you'll do well to visit Hall Bros.' Tailoring Department, Masonic Temple, Fourth and Chillicothe streets.

OBITUARY

Richard Larrison Dawson

Richard Larrison Dawson, a veteran of the Civil war, passed away at the home of his son, R. L. Dawson, Jr., well-known contractor, of No. 1514 Jackson street, Friday morning at one o'clock, at the ripe old age of 84 years.

Mr. Dawson had been suffering with cancer of the throat since last March, but had been seriously ill only for the past four weeks. Mr. Dawson was born in Maysville, Ky., and came to Portsmouth with his son, Richard Dawson, and family, when they moved to this city twelve years ago. His wife, Mrs. Jane Stickle Dawson, died shortly before that time. During the Rebellion Mr. Dawson served one year with Company H, First Regiment U. S. Veteran Engineers. He was a blacksmith by occupation. Other surviving sons and daughters are: Robert and James Dawson, of Maysville; Israel Dawson and Mrs. D. F. Gorhold, of Sciotoville, and Miss Ella Dawson, of this city. He also leaves to mourn his death one brother, W. B. Dawson, and an only sister, Mrs. Mary Hayrocks, both of Maysville. He was a member of the Baptist church of Maysville, to which city the remains will be taken Saturday morning for burial.

Carlton Maier

Mrs. Bertha Sowers Wheeler received a telegram today from Rev. E. A. Maier, of Byesville, former pastor of Kendall Avenue church, telling of the death of their little son, Carlton, who died of tumor on the kidney. He was six years of age and besides his parents, leaves a little sister, Ruth, three years old. The burial took place yesterday at Fredricktown, Rev. and Mrs. Maier left Portsmouth about three years ago.

Lewis J. Rebhun

Lewis J. Rebhun, president of the Rebhun last company of Norwood, O., and who had many friends in shoe factory circles here, died at his home in Clifton Heights last night. He was ill less than a week with pneumonia, complicated with cerebral symptoms. Mr. Rebhun was prominent in club circles in the Queen City. Richard Gordon, formerly of this city, is the Ohio representative of the Rebhun Last company.

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH NOTES

The social given for the benefit of the Sisters Convent Home last evening by Mrs. Geo. Bender assisted by Misses Katherine Kenrick and Margaret McMahon proved a grand success. The new home was beautifully prepared for the happy occasion. The large gathering of friends of the Sisters and lady managers were pleasantly regaled by the strains of charming music which was furnished gratuitously by Mr. Edward Kean and his kind friends.

Misses Mayme Foster, Norene Augustine and Dorothy Eck gracefully looked after the cards. The ladies' first prize, box of handkerchiefs, was awarded to Krieker.

Mrs. John Scherer. Ladies' second prize, a set of hat-pins, was given to Mrs. A. Bridwell.

Gent's prizes: first prize, box of cigars, Louis Krieker; second prize, necktie, John Scherer.

Mr. James Distel held the lucky number out of two hundred which secured him a fine turkey. George Bender who won the fine cake donated by Mrs. B. Augustine presented it to the Sisters. The cake presented by Adams bakery was awarded to Leo Krieker.

Thirty Cents For Coal

Coal 30 cents per bushel. That is what "black diamonds" are selling for in Maysville, according to John Zeune of this city, who was in Maysville on business Thursday.

Cable Trouble

All Home telephones in Earlytown were out of service Friday on account of cable trouble.

If All the Women in Portsmouth

could but realize to what extremes we go to please and to satisfy, they would all come here and have us serve them. We reject merchandise that a great many stores feature as their best, in other words merchandise that comes into our store must be just so, and up to standard or back they go. There are some things we can't do and we don't promise to do, but what we promise we perform and that's all the public wants, that is all they expect, and that is why we have earned our reputation and have grown and become a factor in the ready to wear lines and we are getting better and better. If So Crippled You Can't Use Arms or Legs You Will Help You or Nothing to Pay.

It should do as much for you; it seldom fails.

Ada Roach Company In Musicales Tonight

Ada Roach and her company of star musicians and singers arrived in Portsmouth Friday morning, coming direct from Charleston, W. Va., where on Thursday night they delighted a big audience in the rendition of the musicale, entitled, "The Heart of the Immigrant." The company is to render that musicale at the First Christian church, Third and Gay streets, this evening, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock.

There is no question but Miss Roach and company will be given a splendid hearing. An audience, considerable in excess of 600 people, is anticipated. That figure is none too high, for tickets to the number of more than 450 have been reported sold, and quite a large number of persons will secure their ticket at the church. There will be plenty of room for all who attend, for the church will accommodate more than 1200 people, giving each person a clear view of the platform and a comfortable seat as well.

Practically all of the leading musicians of the city will be present and the audience will be made up of the best people of the city.

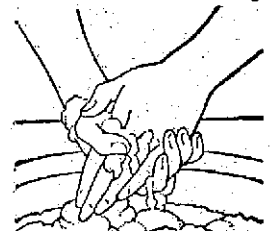

The Ada Roach company comes to Portsmouth bearing the unqualified endorsement of the Redpath Lecture Bureau, under whose auspices they have been filling engagements for the past six years. They have visited every state in the entire United States and have never failed to receive unstinted praise. The musicale at the church tonight will prove to be of a high class attraction in every particular and everybody is cordially invited. Tickets: Adults, 50 cents; children, 25 cents. It is agreed that all high school pupils, regardless of age, shall be admitted for 25 cents each.

No Living Room is Complete Without It

A table takes the chief position in a room, and without one, a living room has a certain barrenness about it. This is a table to be proud of. It is a dignified, yet beautiful design.

Built of Quartered Oak, In Fumed or Golden Finish

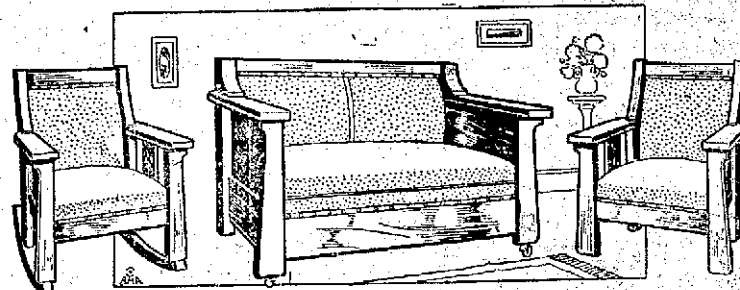

A solid table, that will pay big dividends in the length of time it will brighten up your living room. There's a wide magazine shelf at the bottom, and two deep bookshelves just below the top.

Full Size Throughout

The top is 42 inches long, and 26 inches wide. Just measure that out on an ordinary table, and see how large it really is. Every part is built on generous lines that are proportionate with the top.

When Values Are Most Appreciated

It has long been the Levi policy to offer the most reasonable values when the need and demand is greatest. When prices usually begin to soar, Levi, because of his large purchasing power, is enabled to offer REAL BARGAINS and allow YOU and EVERY ONE to profit thereby. In this ad. you will find many Thanksgiving and pre-holiday offerings which compared with other prices, constitute really unusual values. And everything, regardless of the low selling price, may be purchased on Levi's Dignified Extended Credit Plan.

Don't Take a Chance!

Prices of shoes are advancing at the same rate of speed as prices of food. There is no telling when it will stop. Some manufacturers predict that before the raise stops men's and women's shoes will be retailing at $15.00 per pair. When they do go that high wonder what the people will do is a problem. We don't say they will reach that figure, but there is no use disputing the fact that they are climbing and will be hard to stop.

The prudent and thoughtful folks should lay in a supply now—Don't take a chance

We are offering shoes at the old prices, for with commendable foresight we purchased heavily while the prices were down to rock bottom. And we claim to be honest merchants. Because we happened to have the shoes after the advance was no reason for raising them to meet the present figures. We claim to have shoes on our shelves now that we are selling at a lower figure than we can buy them for in wholesale quantities. That is the real reason why you should get yours now. After a while we will have to ask a whole lot more for our shoes, because they will cost us a whole lot more. Better take our advice and buy while the buying is good. The finest selection in the city to choose from—solid leather shoes—the kind that stand up for themselves all the time.

We give Gold Bond Coupons—Ask for them.

How Thin People Can Put On Flesh

Thin men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are probably sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

Cut out the foolish foods and funny sawdust diets. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating and eat with every one of those a single Sargol tablet. In two weeks note the difference. Let the scales be the judge. Five to eight good solid pounds of healthy, "stay-there" fat may be the net result. Sargol aims to charge, weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh new red blood corpuscles—to give the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food, to prepare it for the blood in an easily assimilated form. Thin people tell how they have gained all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol and say that the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a careful combination of six of the best assimilative elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and Fisher & Streich Pharmacy and all other good druggists in this vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in every large package.

DANGER IN COLDS

Swollen tonsils and inflamed membranes often affect other tissues and lung trouble easily follows. Kill the cold germs and protect your lungs. As soon as your nose feels stopped up or your throat is dry and raw—you know that the germs are getting you.

Kill them before they get too deeply into your system. Wash your mouth gargle, spray your nose with water into which you have put five to ten drops of Hyclorite. Gargle away a glassful several times each day.

Five to ten drops of Hyclorite are enough, but more won't hurt you. Hyclorite is harmless and benefits you yet kills germs quickly. It is many times more effective than peroxide.

Hyclorite cleans the tissues, giving you immediate relief as well as killing the germs.

Hyclorite is a sodium hypochlorite solution. A U. S. Government report has been published showing that 130 antiseptics were recently tested in military hospitals of Europe and sodium hypochlorite is declared by the surgeons to be the most economical and efficient of them all.

Although many times more powerful than the harmful antiseptics which contain poisons, acids, mercury or dangerous preservatives, Hyclorite is even safer than the weak and ineffective peroxides. It is clean, clear and harmless as water—but powerful. Any druggist can supply Hyclorite in 25 and 50 c. bottles. General Laboratories, Madison, Wisconsin.

A baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwartz, at their home, No. 429 Second street, Friday morning. Mr. Schwartz is employed as a salesman at the Battinghaus grocery and hardware store.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Williams, of Kinney's Lane, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Williams, of 1401 Union street, are the proud parents of a baby daughter, who tips the scales at 11 1/2 pounds. The happy father recently arrived home from near Cleveland, where he is employed in a large munition plant. He was followed three hours later by the baby girl, who has been named Gertrude Ruth Williams.

A nine-pound baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Davison at their home 1148 1/2 Fourth street Thursday evening. The child is their first born and has been named Marguerite Joan. Mr. Davison is employed as an electrician at the Whitaker-Glessner company's plant.

The Dainty Fabrics and Trimmings of Warner's Brassieres give a touch of delicate beauty beneath the sheerest waist or most diaphanous gown. Beautiful, however, should by no means govern the selection of your brassiere—fit is truly the most important. The essential thing is the snug support given the form above the line of the corset—which line must be concealed by the brassiere.

The fit of a Warner Brassiere, whatever price you pay, is right, since regardless of the price you pay for a Warner Brassiere, the correctness of the design is assured.

You can buy one beautifully made and exquisitely trimmed at as high a price as you wish to pay; or you can buy a plain brassiere—and this you may trim as daintily, elaborately or even expensively as your taste dictates.

NEED $25,000,000 TO COMPLETE CANALIZATION OF THE OHIO RIVER

Huntington, W. Va., Nov. 24.—R. E. Thomas and Frank M. Baggs, delegate to the annual convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association from Portsmouth, were Friday placed upon important committees by the chairman of the meeting. Thomas is a member of the Miscellaneous Business Committee, and F. M. Baggs, the Nominating Committee.

Active steps were taken at the annual convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, which convened in Huntington yesterday, to demand an appropriation of $25,000,000 to complete the canalization of the Ohio river, the valley through which it flows, was proclaimed the "workshop of the world."

Col. John L. Vance, in his annual report, stated that 21 dams in the system of canalization have been completed; thirteen in the process of completion; 12 for which sites have been selected and only 4 for which sites have not been selected.

Evansville, Ind., was selected as the next place for the next convention. Addresses of welcome by Mayor E. Sehon and C. P. Snow, president of the Chamber of Commerce, with a response by Mayor George Fuchta, of Cincinnati, together with appointment of committees, were other features of the morning session.

At yesterday's session, Col. Edgar Jadwin, United States engineer, stationed at Pittsburgh, informed the delegates that Secretary of War Newton D. Baker is not opposed to the Ohio river canalization program, reports to the contrary notwithstanding. The war secretary, Col. Jadwin, said, is fair and open-minded, a man who investigates both sides of every controversy, and who is with the association in its arguments.

Former Governor A. B. White, of Parkersburg, W. Va., in a brief speech, called the Ohio valley the "workshop of the world," and expressed a desire to see the Ohio river improvements complete in the present day.

Former Congressman James A. Hughes, of Huntington, was the first speaker at the afternoon session, which was opened shortly after two o'clock. Mr. Hughes lauded Col. Vance and urged the necessity of "pushing" the congressmen at Washington to a realization of the demand for Ohio river appropriations.

Mr. Bettinger, of Cincinnati, reviewed briefly the career of the association and referred to the great achievements already made toward the 9-foot stage from Pittsburgh to Cairo. Mr. Bettinger recalled, he said, with regret, the change of attitude of Senator Burton, of Ohio, toward rivers and harbor appropriations, but in justice to Senator Burton it should be said that he accepted the Ohio river project and the Erie canal. Mr. Bettinger declared, however, that with the raising of the cry of "pork" and the general onslaught on rivers and harbor appropriations, the Ohio river project, no matter how meritorious, had suffered along with the rest. The railroads, he declared, have never fought the river plans openly, but he added, they "are at work at this very moment."

"We must meet this opposition by demanding that the entire amount necessary to complete the canalization be appropriated and that the work proceed on the continuing contract system."

By the continuing contract system, Mr. Bettinger said he meant the appropriation of the entire amount necessary to canalize the river, and its disbursement as rapidly as it could be used by the engineers in charge of the work.

"It is senseless to proceed further in this piecemeal fashion," said Mr. Bettinger. "There will be no appreciable result until the whole work is done."

Hon. George K. Denton, congressman-elect from Evansville, declared he had already been convinced the canalization of the Ohio river is the most important piece of work for congressmen along the river, and pledged his aid to the association with the statement that he is already a candidate for a position on the Rivers and Harbors committee.

Secretary Byrd Patterson, of the Lake Erie and Ohio River Canal Association, pictured a great inland route from New York to the Panama canal, and said the projected canal between the Ohio and Lake Erie would be a tremendously important tributary.

The business of the convention will close before noon today with the adoption of resolutions and the annual election of officers.

Capt. Burnside last night announced the expected arrival of the following boats today to take part in the "Steamboat Parade."

"Exporter," "Charles Brown" and "Cruiser," of Pittsburgh Coal Company, by Capt. W. C. Glaser, district representative stationed in Huntington.

"J. T. Hatfield" and "Plymouth," by Capt. J. T. Hatfield, of Hatfield Coal Company.

"Catherine Davis," by Island Creek Fuel Company.

"Eugene Dana Smith" and "Robert P. Gilliam," by Campbell Creek Coal Company, of which Capt. Burnside is traffic manager.

Packet "Chris Greene" by Capt. Garrison Greene, of the Green Line.

"C. C. Nowyer," by Capt. Gard- blow.

If the "J. T. Hatfield" arrives it will be utilized as the flagship.

R. E. Thomas, Frank M. Baggs and J. Arthur Bode, Portsmouth, were among the delegates at the meeting.

No Trace of Man

City and county authorities have as yet secured no trace of Cliff Dickerson who skipped out after assaulting a fellow workman (Charles Joseph) with a lasting iron at the upper Irving Drew shoe factory some weeks ago. Joseph died at Hempstead hospital October 21 from the effects of the blow.

Shamrocks To Play Chillicothe Sunday

Portsmouth football fans will be given a chance to see a great game Sunday when a heavy Chillicothe eleven meets the fast Shamrock warriors of this city. The Shamrocks have the best Sunday football aggregation in this part of the state and are ready to defend their title at any time.

Word was received Thursday night that the Chillicothe team would arrive here Sunday noon. The up-state eleven will average about 180 pounds, outweighing the locals at least 20 pounds.

In the Chillicothe lineup will be several ex-high school stars and several of this year's high school players who have been banished from the regular team. The Chillicothe eleven has won six games this season.

The Shamrocks held a splendid practice Thursday evening with every player on the field. Another practice, the final workout before the game will be held Sunday morning at nine o'clock. Every player should be out Sunday morning.

The Ivory Knobs, thanks to the excellent work (in spots) of Raymond York and William F. Zottmann, slipped over a couple of defeats in the Submarines at the play house alley last night.

The Submarines, with Admiral Floyd Waller pulling like a see-saw, romped home with the opening strategies by the narrow margin of 14 pins. The Knobs, however, came back and captured the sandwich game by the close score of 3 pins. Then the Knobs, reinforced by W. E. Clayton and spurred on by Raymond York's high score, forced the Subs to take to the hither deep. Some of the scores were of the punk variety, the work of William Zottmann standing out most prominently, all of his scores being clean cut and of handsome proportions. He averaged close to 150 and when Bill does that he is shooting some. It would be impossible, even by a stretch of the imagination, to pass around another bouquet—oathless might do, but it costs too much to sling around even on white paper. The scores:

Ready For Ironton

The above is the lineup P. H. S. will present Saturday afternoon when they take the field against Ironton. The school's pet eleven at Ironton park, without a doubt this is the best lineup P. H. S. has presented this season. The team has been practicing this week with the above lineup and the heavy second team has been unable to make any kind of a showing against them. When the N. and W. train pulls out of the local station for Ironton Saturday noon it is expected that over 100 students will climb aboard to accompany the Red and Blue eleven to the up-river city.

Captain Pat Shoemaker and his men went through a stiff workout Thursday afternoon. The locals who have been playing the week like they never have before this season are confident of returning home Saturday evening with a victory.

Last season P. H. S. and I. H. S. played two games, the Portsmouth game ending a tie 12 to 12 and the Ironton game I. H. S. won by a score of 27 to 7. Captain "Shanty" Davies of Ironton, who had a leg operated upon Monday will probably get into half the game. Manager Fritz is sure to be out of the game and Wilson a sub is making a fine showing at tackle position. Hughes, sub halfback, has also sprung a surprise and will likely get into the game Saturday.

All about for Ironton at 11:35 Saturday.

JACKSON MAN WHO HAS A SON HERE CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

The following from the Jackson, Ohio, Standard Journal is of interest here as Levisay Callaghan has one son, Robert L., residing in Portsmouth:

"Few men are so favored as Levisay Callaghan who has lived to see his eighty-seventh year. He crossed the divide on November 4. Two of his sons, Robert L., living at Portsmouth, and Benton B., at Columbus, came here to spend the week end with him.

"He was almost as pleased with his being able to go out to vote for Wilson on November 7, as he was over his birthday, for the president has no more ardent admirer. The old timers took their politics as seriously as their religion.

Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some using even so far as to make a chemical analysis—

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois. "I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with good results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was a very run down condition and the weather was very hot and I could stand, but I commenced taking your compound in June and from then until September 25th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth, and I recovered very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with equal satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old and feels confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. The Good People Of Portsmouth Appreciate A GENUINE SALE

Of Pianos, Player Pianos, Phonographs,
Violins, Ukuleles, Sheet Music, Etc.

This was made evident this week when the

of the Hutchison-Wamser Music company was offered at prices so much below the ordinary that the hundreds of people who called expressed surprise that we are able to sell the stock at such low figures. We were not only pleased at the large amount of instruments sold, but gratified beyond measure at the confidence expressed in us. They seemed to know at a glance that everything offered for sale was absolutely genuine—that better merchandise was never before offered for sale under one roof. We closed many deals, pleased every purchaser and delighted others who called to inspect our stock.

Remember, this stock was purchased away below its original value, which enables us to sell it to you at unheard of low prices. We believe that any music dealer in Portsmouth will readily admit that our prices are far below wholesale quotations, while all will admit the standard of our merchandise.

Girls! Try this! Before curling or waving your hair with pins, papers or a heated iron, just moisten each strand with atalpa water and you will be delighted how natural the curls and waves appear and how long they last in spite of wind, dampness or perspiration. A few ounces of atalpa water will cost very little at any drug store and there is nothing better to help retain the curls and waves or to soften, gloss or luff the hair and to make it look thick and abundant.

FAT FOLKS WHO WOULD BE THIN

Reduce Weight 10 Pounds or More
"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to reduce a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively fat man or woman. Such a result is not impossible despite past failures. Most fat people are the victims of super-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being consumed by the blood. Instead of only nourishing the blood, much of the fat producing elements are deposited in different parts of the body where they don't belong.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy normal distribution the nutritive processes must be artificially supplied with the fat-burning power which nature has denied them. This can probably be best accomplished by taking Oil of Koren capsule with every meal. Koren is a careful combination of splendid fat-reducing elements, and its rapid effect has been in many cases reported remarkable. Reported reductions of from 10 to 25 pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet this action is perfectly natural and harmless. Oil of Koren is sold by Fisher and Streich Pharmacy and other good druggists in the original sealed laboratory packages.

Marigold Cream is not sticky; no grease. Good after shaving. If not satisfactory money refunded. Fisher & Streich's Pharmacy, 6th and Chilliote.

from you and oblige. I am.

AN IGNORANT PARASITE.

As Luke Alcluke would say, "Thank for them kind words."

I don't remember what I told you before, but I will say now there is nothing you can do to gain the young man's friendship, since he lives in another town and does not care to write to you very often.

However, if it is your turn to write you might answer his letter, and if not you could send him a Thanksgiving card. That will give him a chance to write if he feels inclined to do so.

If he doesn't answer your card he evidently does not care to correspond with you. He may be waiting until you are through school before he makes up his mind what he wants to do.

You ought not have "boys on the brain" now. Spend all your spare time studying so you will be a bright and interesting girl when you grow up.

Dear Dolly—I if I should report a neighbor for violating the law, to whom would I refer? Could the one reported find out who did it? I wish to report a certain one but hesitate because I know if he was to find out who did it there would be trouble.

INTERESTED.

This would depend upon what law was being violated. However, I believe you would be safe in notifying the constable or marshal.

GENEVIEVE—Wear your hat or some kind of a head covering until you get there. You may remove it or keep it on just as you like. You may open the box. It doesn't make any difference which of you opens the box or cuts the pie. You might be able to borrow a knife to cut it with. If not you can take one knife and two forks.

Thought For Today.

Good entertaining and beautiful books are the delight of childhood, the pleasure of youth, the joy of middle age, and the solace of old age.

SOCIETY

The last of a series of delightful parties given as ante-nuptial favors to Miss Ora Locher, fiancée of Mr. Robert Connell, was a china shower given by Miss Marie Daugherty last evening at her home on Eleventh street.

The color tone was red and white. The rooms were elaborately adorned in scarlet and white hearts and flowers. The chandeliers were festooned with Southern smiles and the lights were shaded with scarlet paper shades. At the end of the delightful evening the guests were invited to the dining-room, where the guest of honor was asked to uncover the table, where she found a set of beautiful china dishes, with which she was delighted. Miss Locher has been honored with many parties and showers and her friends planned to end the parties with a "set of dishes" shower. The refreshments were cherry ice cream and heart-shaped cakes. These presents were: Misses Ora Locher, Edna Schoettle, Mabel Lorey, Goldie and Carol Patton, Bernadine Schreiber, Grace Johnson, Lucile Goodman, Erma Watkins, Alma Guller, Clara Fields, Myrtle Alluck, Nellie and Alberta Locher and Mrs. Edna Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davidson, of 1114 Fourth street, are the proud parents of their first-born, a baby daughter, who came last evening to brighten their home. The baby has been named Margaret Joanne. The two grandmothers, Mrs. Charles Strahl and Mrs. Lowry Davidson, of Hamden, are here to see the new baby.

Mrs. Musser was the recipient of many presents, and her birthday anniversary was also remembered by a post-card shower. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent by all. Music was one of the pleasures of the occasion and refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those present were

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

25 cent bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

Arthur Nelson, colored, 16, who lives at the corner of Eleventh and Gay streets, is being held at the county jail, pending an investigation of the authorities into a charge preferred by Edward Hollingsworth, colored, 10, Waller and Sixteenth streets. Traveling Man For Nerv-Worth

Tobacco Salesman Found It Great Aid To Digestion.

Nerv-Worth has been a boon to many a traveling salesman. Its power to aid digestion and quiet the nerves is of marked value to the men who have to put up with all kinds of meals at all hours of the day and night and who are constantly on the run.

The following endorsement throws light on the subject. It was given by H. E. Ashbaugh, who travels for the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., and who lives at Parkersburg, W. Va.:

"I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth at Charleston, W. Va. I had stomach trouble and indigestion and was a poor sleeper. Have taken Nerv-Worth treatment and my stomach trouble is better. Sleep well, general condition improved. I recommend the medicine."

Nerv-Worth whets the appetite, promotes digestion, steadies the nerves, regulates the bowels, restores restful sleep, rouses the liver, banishes headaches and other distressing aches and pains, adds flesh, builds up run-down systems. If it fails to do this for you your dollar back at Fisher & Streich Pharmacy, opposite post-office, Portsmouth. Ask for sample dose.

If Your Children Have Colds Follow Troy Mother's Advice

Mrs. John Sharits Advises Use of the "External" Treatment.

Mothers know how difficult it is to treat children's colds. It seems criminal to give them strong internal medicine, and yet their colds can not be neglected.

Mrs. John Sharits, 747 West Water St., Troy, Ohio, solved this problem when she tried the Southern treatment—Vick's VapoRub Salve. She writes:

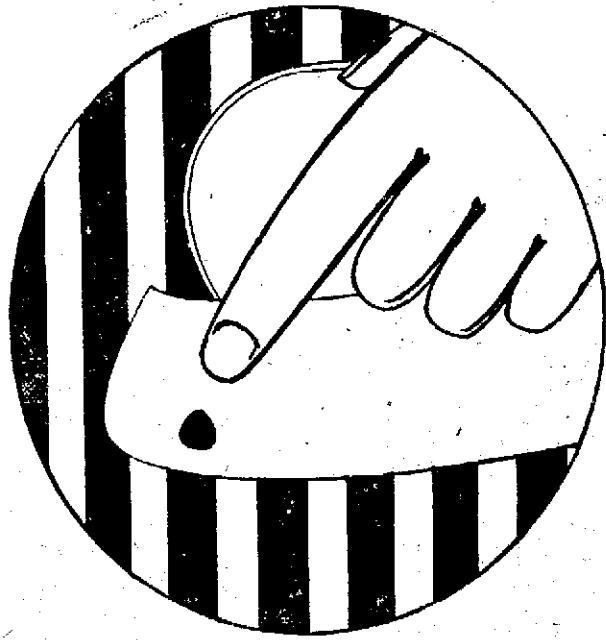

"We have used Vick's VapoRub Salve on our six children for the past three years, and now we would not be without it. I like it so much better than I do medicines that have to be given internally. Vick's VapoRub can be used freely with perfect safety on the youngest child. The formula is given on every wrapper. For croup or colds, you just apply it well over the throat and chest and cover with a warm handkerchief, leaving the covering loose around the neck to the vapors arising may be inhaled. Croup is usually relieved in fifteen minutes, colds over night. Three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00.

AS TO POLITICAL ADVERTISING

The Editor and Publisher, a journalist magazine, of New York, has "started something"—perhaps, with malice prepense—by criticizing New York newspapers, supporting Wilson, for taking advertising that offered argument why voters should give their support to Hughes, or at least, appealed to them so to do. It takes the high stand that such acceptance was, on the part of the offending newspapers, unethical; it even goes to the extent of intimating therein consists a degree of moral debasement. Newspaper publishing is not a profession, in the ordinary sense, therefore ethics, for which we have scarce reverence, has no place in their conduct. Newspapers have not attained great dignity, even as business institutions, but in the main as much honor and honesty will be found in them as is existent in any profession or business. Newspapers have only two commodities for sale, news and advertising space. Their editorial opinions, or policy, have precious little to do with either making or breaking them. They can't be choice of their news, they have to be circled in gathering it and truthful in presenting it; they have nothing to do in regulating its occurrence. Their advertising columns ought to be open to all legitimate demands. They ought not to reject any publicity that is clean. The fact that it may not be in harmony with their own views has nothing to do with admissibility; neither has the belief that indirect harm may grow out thereof. Nobody would, nor possibly could, object to a New York paper taking advertising that stimulates rash buying; yet it is an acknowledged fact that there is an incident evil therein, because many persons are stirred thereby to a passion of purchasing that is hurtful to their welfare.

If we understand ethics at all, we would say that "higher ethics" is the one thing that would make opposition advertising admissible to the party newspaper. No man, not even a newspaper, can be sure, beyond contravention, that his own opinions alone are correct. In politics, as in criminal law, the accused has a right to be heard in his own defense. That right should not be denied him, even by an infallible newspaper. If it were denied him, here is a condition that might easily occur: Supposing every newspaper in New York were opposing a candidate, altogether mistakenly and unjustly—admitting such assumption against their air of superiority—would it be fair, would it be honest, ay, would it be ethical to deny him the right to go before the public with his claims and his contraventions? Most assuredly not.

There ought to be no discussion on the subject. The American people stand for fair play, millions of them read opposition arguments, go to hear opposing spellbinders, with never a thought they are offending in any moral, ethical, or common sense. The newspaper that would hold itself out as a pattern to the contrary is merely foolish, that's all, especially when that same newspaper publishes free the speeches of opponents, would its refusal to accept pay for opposing political advertising be condemned with a strong prefix adjective.

The West Side has now two miles of completed paved roads. Naturally it wants more and which the same thing is, after all the best thing about a real road, the more a community has of them the more it wants and the more willing it gets to pay the price.

The late Candidate Hughes has at last sent that letter of congratulation. To which a majority of a half million of us will agree it is much better than never.

The king is dead; long live the king. And the war will go on as long as either side can stand for it.

Just a trifle of weather to remind us there is such a thing as winter.

The fact now being officially established that the vote was close, we may expect the straw ballot papers to again break forth in jubilation as to how they foretold it. The fact that aforesaid straw ballot showed Hughes would carry California, the most belated of the decisive states by 9 to 1 will have nothing to do with it—case.

After all isn't it making a man excessively big to say he can swing one hundred and thirty thousand votes for him against some other fellow-candidate. That is what they are charging one Eli Johnson with doing in California. How near the same thing happened in Kansas they haven't yet told us.

That man Wilson seems a most forehanded person. He is said to have his message to congress already written.

At least we can commend unreservedly the idea of the board to establish a Children's Home, on a farm convention to the city. There they will not only have less seductive attractions outside, but they will be able to contribute to their own welfare to an extent that the limited resources of the county do not permit.

More people are to be put to work in one of the adjacent brick plants. So again we will see every little bit helps same.

Once in awhile we get mighty tired seeing the old town all littered up with wreckage and material, but instantly chide ourselves for so being, for this is the process by which she moves to a greater and fairer Portsmouth.

THE FORMAL SURRENDER

THE STAUNCH OLD MOORINGS

A national crime is lack of veneration, a restless desire for change in the laws and practices of the land without sober thought or sound reason, that the change would be a betterment.

To none other than this spirit is to be laid a growing insistance that the manner of choosing the president, which has been the rule ever since the constitution adopted by the thirteen states went into effect, should be so altered as to make his election turn upon the popular vote direct and not through the separate states choosing electors.

If it would be kept in mind that this is a union of separate and independent states and not in strict acceptance, a nation or a single government of supreme and single power, it might appear that the plan of electing a chief executive through the separate states is best suited to the genius of our government. It furnishes one of the most vital of the checks and counter checks that our fathers placed in the constitution, whereby they sought to prevent the centralizing of power too complete in the federal rule and too independently loose in the state.

Wisely it may be esteemed, in view of the stability, glory and beneficence it has attained the fathers did not design to create a pure democracy, in which the will of the majority should be final and absolute, but rather a republic, in which the people should rule surely enough, but with such limitations and balances as should make against the disaster that is likely to follow in the wake of a spasm, or suddenly aroused clamor of the populace.

The old constitution has stood us well. There is no sufficient reason appearing right now, with the president-elect being both the constitutional and popular choice. Certainly not in the argument that under the electoral system it is easier to buy up the election, than it would be if the people spoke directly. The facts are against it there. If there are venal votes in New York, Indiana and Connecticut that can be bought for money, so are there likewise such votes in Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas. Under the direct plan every vote would count, no matter where cast and each one bought would have an actual, countable value and there would be no waste, but under the electoral system the hoodlars say they should dump their money into Missouri, Maryland and Montana, or Kansas, Nebraska and California, because they are going to be the pivotal states this campaign! No, he could not. To a certain extent every state is pivotal every election and that presents the most impossible obstacle to a corruption so general that it would defeat the will of the majority of honest voters.

The late Candidate Hughes has had that letter written for some time. He has forgot to mail it, that's all.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O-O-M'ENTYRE.

New York, Nov. 24.—In a certain all night drug store on Eighth avenue where the night birds of the Tenderloin are wont to flock there appeared the other morning a chalk-faced man—once a famous jockey—but now slipping down the rungs through the use of drugs.

His eyes were dancing from heavy indulgence of cocaine and all his nerves were leaping. He joined in the conversation and finally monopolized it. A corner policeman drifted in to see that all was quiet.

"Everything quiet along the Rialto?" he said cheerily. The crowd, always in mortal fear of the police, agreed. In fact they would have sworn Hughes is clean shaven if the officer had even intimated that he thought so.

But the former jockey was in a stubborn mood. "Whadda you mean, all is quiet?" he said nervously, pulling at a frayed necktie. The policeman shot him a keen glance and remarked: "Full of 'snow' to the eyebrows again, eh? Well you'd better have 'em mix you a run out powder. Beat it."

The drug user steadied and moved slowly toward the door. "Lemme tell you something," he said. "They never fly so high but what they have to fall. I never said I'd get a man yet that I didn't make good. You are my next man, you great big, flat-footed, pie-eyed, sausage-headed—" By this time he thought he was near the door and turned suddenly and started to run. Instead he rushed right through a big plate-glass window. The officer rushed out expecting to see the man badly cut, if not killed by falling glass.

Instead he found him on the curb with a silly grin on his face. "Officer," he said, "did you see me do that back flip off the Woolworth Tower? Rather clever, huh? And he walked away arm in arm with the cop."

The Herald and the Sun are having a good-natured fling at each other editorially. The Sun for years has had under its name-plate: "It shines for all." The other day the Herald also ran a line on the first page: "It shines for all."

The Sun says editorially: "We understand that our contemporary is merely advertising the fact that it has now added a well-equipped and attractive boot-lack parlor."

Lee Kugel has put over a show on Broadway. And it landed the wallop, too. When I was dramatic editor of the Evening Mail and Lee was the right hand man of Henry B. Harris, he used to send me palpitations pieces about his manager's productions. And most of them I printed because he was one of the few press N. Y.

agents with a sense of news values. "I haven't seen his show yet, and when I do I'll pay at the box office just as I do at all times. So this is not a free puff. But Lee's show must be a marvel. It is the story of an old lady who goes to a poorhouse, with all the scenes laid there. And it is full of sobs. The idea of dramatizing an inmate of a poorhouse strikes me as novel. The name of the play is 'Old Lady 31'."

Kugel was born and raised in St. Joseph, Mo. During the tense hours when it was not known whether Mr. Harris had gone down at sea, Kugel used to call me up every five minutes for information. At last I had to tell him the worst. And he sobbed like a child. Somehow I always have respect for a big, strong man who gives way to tears when the occasion demands.

A man had the audacity the other day to open up a shell game on a little stand on Broadway. He had collected a good-sized crowd when a detective came along and gathered him in. "Why don't you go down in Wall street and pinch some of those gamblers?" he waited as he stepped into the wagon.

Out With the morning

Out with the morning in spirit and heart,
Out with the morning to take up our part;
Out with the morning to seize every chance,
Out with the morning to bubble and dance.
Out with the morning to shine as it shines,
Out with the morning to climb with its vines.
Up to the sunlight and out to the air,
Cleansed of our trouble and purged of our care,
Strengthened and brightened and made men again,
To face the world fighting as men among men,
To climb the steps singing a song at the start—
Out with the morning, with morn at the heart.

Keeping It Quiet

Little Margaret lived in a gossip neighborhood, and, being an observant child, she had got some ideas into her early head. One day, having done something naughty, she was sent upstairs to confess her transgressions in prayer. "Did you tell God about it?" asked her mother, when she came down again. "Deed I didn't," she declared. "Why, it would have been all over heaven in no time."—Boston Transcript.

EXPLOSION SINKS A RUSSIAN DREADNOUGHT; 200 MISSING

FIRE ABOARD HUGE WARSHIP REACHES THE PETROL TANKS

Petrograd, Nov. 23.—(Via London, Nov. 24.)—Russian official announces the loss of the dreadnought Imperatrisa Maria. The statement issued reads: "The Russian dreadnought Imperatrisa Maria has been sunk by an internal explosion. Two hundred of the crew are missing."

The Imperatrisa Maria was launched in 1914, and displaced 23,500 tons. Her officers and crew number about 1,000 men. The vessel was 550 feet long, and had draught of 27 feet. She was armed with ten 12-inch, twenty-four and four 2.5-inch guns, and four 3-pounders and four torpedo tubes.

The Russian naval staff has issued the following statement: "At six o'clock on November 23, fire broke out in the forward magazine of the Imperatrisa Maria. An internal explosion followed immediately and the fire spread rapidly and reached the petrol tanks. The officers and crew strove with the utmost bravery to localize the effects of the explosion and flood the magazines. The commander-in-chief Vice Admiral Koischak went aboard the vessel and took personal command of the operations. "Shortly after 7 o'clock the vessel sank. The greater part of the crew were saved. An officer and two first-class sub-officers and 149 sailors are missing. Sixty-four of the crew have since died from the effects of burns. "The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gives hope that it may be refloated and completely repaired in a few months. The bridge is only one yard below the water level."

GEORGETOWN LIVERYMAN IS ACQUITTED

Georgetown, O., Nov. 24.—Leonard Sanders, a liveryman, of Mt. Gilead, who was tried for the murder of Henry Wahl, was found not guilty by the jury late yesterday.

When the verdict was read in court Sanders broke down and cried aloud. After he had composed himself he shook the hands of the jurymen and was then driven to his home.

The case and trial was regarded as one of the most sensational ever held in Brown county, and attracted many visitors.

The prosecution had contended that it was Sanders who shot and killed Wahl, a wealthy farmer, from ambush, as the latter was preparing to enter the yard of his home in his automobile. Judge E. E. Carr, of Canton heard the case.

Old Time Sermon Writers. Why don't clergymen who are unequal to composing good sermons for themselves occasionally read one of the beautiful homilies provided for them by the church? Or why don't they frankly read some one else's sermon, giving credit to the author? One wonders whether the hack sermon writer exists nowadays—the man who in the eighteenth century and later "loaned" original sermons in manuscript for a trifling fee. It is on record that Coleridge when he was particularly hard up raised the wind in this way. How much would a sermon in Coleridge's handwriting fetch at Sotheby's today?—London Chronicle.

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF ADAMSON ACT TO BE ESTABLISHED BEFORE PROVISIONS WILL BE ENFORCED

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—Under a tentative agreement arranged today to have been made between department of justice officials and railroad attorneys, the government will not insist on railroads putting into effect provisions of the Adamson act until the supreme court has determined the laws constitutionality. The measure becomes effective January 1, but prosecutions for violations would be withheld. The agreement is conditional on the ability of counsel for the government and railroads, who are in Kansas City today to appear before the federal court there in the Santa Fe suit, to decide on what case should be appealed to the supreme court for the test.

The agreement also would provide that railroads should not file new suits attacking the Adamson law pending the supreme court's decision and should not institute further action if the law be held valid. It would not seek to prevent effort to obtain legislation amending the Adamson act, however.

New York, Nov. 24.—Nearly all of the jewels valued at $80,000 stolen from Mrs. E. H. Harriman here, were recovered by the police today. A small ruby, traced through three separate sales and believed to be in the hands of a Maiden Lane jeweler, and a diamond valued at $10,000 are still missing. The early recovery of both was predicted.

Arthur P. Daggett, of Larchmont, New York, and Orville Daggett, of Brooklyn, were arrested last night on complaint of Clement Arthur Tegethoff, manager of the Harriman estate, and charged with the theft. The police offered no explanation of the manner in which the robbery was committed.

The most precious jewel recovered was a ruby valued at $40,000, which is said to be one of the finest of its kind in the world. This gem the police found in the pocket of an old pair of trousers in the home of Arthur P. Daggett. The smaller ruby was attached to the larger one by a platinum chain set with thirty-five small diamonds. The chain was recovered.

Urge Westphalians Not To Buy Smuggled Goods

London, Nov. 24.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Amsterdam says: "The Rhenish Westphalian Gazette appeals to the people of Westphalia not to buy smuggled goods at absurd prices. The newspaper says it is possible to buy at Essen, Dortmund and Duisburg any quantity of smuggled ham and bacon at from seven to ten marks per pound. The dealers buying smuggled goods are likely to suffer a bad shock, inasmuch as in December, January and February large quantities of meat will be released for sale. Tens of thousands of pigs have been slaughtered and more are being slaughtered daily."

The children will now receive back pay of $1,241 and two of them who are at the Xenia orphan's home, will each get $7 a month until reaching the age of 16.

China's Sugar Palm. In the southern parts of French Indo-China the natives obtain both food and a certain kind of wine from the sugar palm. Several varieties of this palm are exploited by the natives. The tree attains a height of fully twenty feet, but cannot be tapped to any advantage until it is fifty or sixty years of age, when it begins to flower. The flowers, which generally appear at the end of branches, are cut open, and the sap which exudes is collected in little bamboo cups. Sometimes a single flower will produce a quart and a half of sap daily for a month, but the average is about a quart each day per tree during the four or five months of its florescence.

Western Conference Championship To Be Settled Saturday

Ohio State To Play Northwestern In The Final Game Of Season

Columbus, Nov. 24.—The football championship of the Western Conference, generally known as the "Big Nine," will be decided here tomorrow afternoon when teams representing Ohio State and Northwestern universities meet on Ohio Field in their annual game.

Neither Ohio State, the baby member of the conference, nor Northwestern has suffered defeat this season. The winner of the game, therefore, will be the undisputed champion of the Big Nine.

The two teams will enter the championship contest nearly evenly matched. Neither appears to have a decided advantage over the other and both, on the eve of the struggle, are expected to be in the pink of condition. One of the best gridiron contests ever staged in the middle west is expected. Ohio football enthusiasts look upon Ohio State as a favorite, although sport writers in the Chicago newspapers have favored Northwestern to win.

Should Northwestern win, Ohio State will have at least a tie for second honor, as it and Minnesota, provided the latter wins from Chicago, would then have suffered defeat in one conference game each this season.

Including tomorrow's contest, Ohio State will have participated in four conference game this season, while Northwestern will have played in five. Ohio State has defeated the following conference teams: Illinois, 7-6; Wisconsin, 14-13; and Indiana, 16-7; Northwestern's 1916 record of victories is: Chicago 10-0; Indiana, 7-0; Iowa, 20-19; and Purdue, 28-6.

Ohio rooters are pinning their faith in Ohio State's well-balanced and well-organized offense and in C. W. (Chick) Harley, the young half-back whose playing has been one of the sensations of the "Big Nine" this season. Harley has been Ohio State's best ground-gainer and point-getter. He is 19 years old, a sophomore with two more years to play and the youngest "man" on Ohio State's team. He is a former Chicago boy, but now lives in Columbus.

J. W. St. John, director of athletics at Ohio State, has made reservations for 200 Northwestern rooters who are expected to accompany their team. Additional bleachers have been built on Ohio field and approximately 15,000 persons are expected to witness the game. Most of the seats have been sold for more than a week.

The Ohio State band of eighty pieces will furnish music during the game from a platform along the sidelines. Ohio State will have four cheer leaders—one for each side of the field—to keep up enthusiasm.

The Ivory Knobs, thanks to the excellent work (in spots) of Raymond York and William E. Zollmann, slipped over a couple of defeats to the Submarines at the Play House always last night.

The Submarines, with Admiral Floyd Butler putting like gun-how, romped home with the opening struggles by the narrow margin of 11 pins. The Knobs, however, came back and captured the sandwich game by the close score of 3 pins. Then the Knobs, reinforced by W. E. Clayton and spurred on by Roy Sims to take to the briny deep. Some of the scores were of the punk variety, the work of William Zollmann standing out most prominently, all of his scores being clean cut and of handsome proportions. He averaged close to 190 and when Bill does that he is shooting some. It would be impossible, even by a stretch of the imagination, to pass around another bouquet—cabbage might do, but it costs too much to sling around even on white paper. The scores:

Shamrocks To Play Chillicothe Sunday

Portsmouth football fans will be given a chance to see a great game Sunday when a heavy Chillicothe eleven meets the fast Shamrock warriors of this city. The Shamrocks have the best Sunday football aggregation in this part of the state and are ready to defend their title at any time.

Word was received Thursday night that the Chillicothe team would arrive here Sunday noon. The up-state eleven will average about 120 pounds, outwishing the locals at least 20 pounds.

The above is the lineup P. H. S. will present Saturday afternoon when they take the field against Ironton high school's not eleven at Beechwood park, Ironton.

Without a doubt this is the best lineup P. H. S. has presented this season. The team has been practicing this week with the above lineup and the heavy second team has been unable to make any kind of a showing against them. When the N. and W. train pulls out of the local station for Ironton Saturday noon it is expected that over 100 students will climb aboard to accompany the Red and Blue eleven to the up-river city.

Captain Pat Shoemaker and his men went through a stiff workout Thursday afternoon. The locals who have been playing this week like they never have before this season are confident of returning home Saturday evening with a victory.

Last season P. H. S. and I. H. S. played two games, the Portsmouth game ending a tie 12 to 12 and the Ironton game I. H. S. won by a score of 27 to 7. Captain "Shorty" Davies of Ironton who had a leg operated upon Monday will probably get into half the game. Manager Fritz is sure to be out of the game and Wilson a sub is making a fine showing at tackle position. Hughes, sub halfback, has also sprung a surprise and will likely get into the game Saturday.

All aboard for Ironton at 11:15 Saturday.

's Banking On Gould

Cleveland, Nov. 24.—Manager Lee Fohl of the Cleveland Americans is counting on Albert Gould, a diminutive spitball pitcher, to be one of his leading slayers next season. Fohl signed Gould before the close of last season after several big league clubs had passed him up because of his size. Gould has plenty of nerve, which is one thing Fohl believes will make him a winning pitcher.

We put it up to Hundreds of Dentists

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis.

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord said: "Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen." "I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used." "I can recommend Senreco as the best." "Wicks the teeth clean and is free from injurious ingredients, including pumice and grit." "I am induced to get a tooth paste that does the work." "Congratulations you on formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc." (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Originals on file at our office.)

AS TO POLITICAL ADVERTISING

The Editor and Publisher, a journalist magazine, of New York, has "started something"—perhaps, with malice prepense—by criticizing New York newspapers, supporting Wilson, for taking advertising that offered argument why voters should give their support to Hughes, or at least appealed to them so to do. It takes the high stand that such acceptance was, on the part of the offending newspapers, unethical; it even goes to the extent of intimating therein consists a degree of moral debasement. Newspaper publishing is not a profession, in the ordinary sense, therefore ethics, for which we have scarce reverence, has no place in their conduct. Newspapers have not attained great dignity, even as business institutions, but in the main as much honor and honesty will be found in them as is existent in any profession or business. Newspapers have only two commodities for sale, news and advertising space. Their editorial opinions, or policy, have precious little to do with either making or breaking them. They can't be choice of their news, they have to be tireless in gathering it and truthful in presenting it; they have nothing to do in regulating its occurrence. Their advertising columns ought to be open to all legitimate demands. They ought not to reject any publicity that is clean. The fact that it may not be in harmony with their own views has nothing to do with admissibility; neither has the belief that indirect harm may grow out thereof. Nobody would, nor possibly could, object to a New York paper taking advertising that stimulates rush buying, yet it is an acknowledged fact that there is an incident evil therein, because many persons are stirred thereby to a passion of purchasing that is hurtful to their welfare.

If we understand ethics at all, we would say that "higher ethics" is the one thing that would make opposition advertising admissible to the party newspaper. No man, not even a newspaper, can be sure, beyond contravention, that his own opinions alone are correct. In politics, as in criminal law, the accused has a right to be heard in his own defense. That right should not be denied him, even by an infallible newspaper. If it were denied him, here is a condition that might easily occur: Supposing every newspaper in New York were opposing a candidate, altogether mistakenly and unjustly—admitting such assumption against their air of superiority—would it be fair, would it be honest, aye, would it be ethical to deny him the right to go before the public with his claims and his contraventions? Most assuredly not.

There ought to be no discussion on the subject. The American people stand for fair play, millions of them read opposition arguments, go to hear opposing spellbinders, with never a thought they are offending in any moral, ethical, or common sense. The newspaper that would hold itself out as a pattern to the contrary is merely foolish, that's all, especially when that same newspaper publishes free the speeches of opponents, would its refusal to accept pay for opposing political advertising be condemned with a strong prefix adjective.

The West Side has now two miles of completed paved roads. Naturally it wants more and which the same thing is, after all the best thing about a real road, the more a community has of them the more it wants and the more willing it gets to pay the price.

The late Candidate Hughes has at last sent that letter of congratulation. To which a majority of a half million of us will agree it is much better than never.

The king is dead; long live the king. And the war will go on as long as either side can stand for it.

Just a trifle of weather to remind us there is such a thing as winter.

The fact now being officially established that the vote was close, we may expect the straw ballot papers to again break forth in jubilation as to how they foretold it. The fact that aforesaid straw ballot showed Hughes would carry California, the most belated of the decisive states by 9 to 1 will have nothing to do with the case.

After all isn't it making a man excessively big to say he can swing one hundred and thirty thousand votes for him against some other fellow-candidate. That is what they are charging one Eli Johnson with doing in California. How near the same thing happened in Kansas they haven't yet told us.

That man Wilson seems a most forehanded person. He is said to have his message to congress already written.

At least we can commend unreservedly the idea of the board to establish a Children's Home, on a farm convenient to the city. There they will not only have less seductive attractions outside, but they will be able to contribute to their own welfare to an extent that the limited resources of the county do not permit.

More people are to be put to work in one of the adjacent brick plants. So again we will see every little bit helps some.

Once in awhile we get mighty tired seeing the old town all littered up with wreckage and material, but instantly abide ourselves for so being, for this is the process by which she moves to a greater and fairer Portsmouth.

THE FORMAL SURRENDER

THE STAUNCH OLD MOORINGS

A national crime is lack of veneration, a restless desire for change in the laws and practices of the land without sober thought or sound reason, that the change would be a betterment.

To none other than this spirit is to be laid a growing insistence that the manner of choosing the president, which has been the rule ever since the constitution adopted by the thirteen states went into effect, should be so altered as to make his election turn upon the popular vote direct and not through the separate states choosing electors.

If it would be kept in mind that this is a union of separate and independent states and not in strict acceptance, a nation or a single government of supreme and single power, it might appear that the plan of electing a chief executive through the separate states is best suited to the genius of our government. It furnishes one of the most vital of the checks and counter checks that our fathers placed in the constitution, whereby they sought to prevent the centralizing of power too complete in the federal rule and too independently loose in the state.

Wisely it may be esteemed, in view of the stability, glory and beneficence it has attained the fathers did not design to create a pure democracy, in which the will of the majority should be final and absolute, but rather a republic, in which the people should rule surely enough, but with such limitations and balances as should make against the disaster that is likely to follow in the wake of a spasm, or suddenly aroused clamor of the populace.

The old constitution has stood us well. There is no sufficient reason appearing right now, with the president-elect being both the constitutional and popular choice. Certainly not in the argument that under the electoral system it is easier to buy up the election, than it would be if the people spoke directly. The facts are against it there. If there are venal votes in New York, Indiana and Connecticut that can be bought for money, so are there likewise such votes in Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas. Under the direct plan every vote would count, no matter where east and each one bought would have an actual, countable value and there would be no waste, but under the electoral system can the hoodlums say they should dump their money into Missouri, Maryland and Montana, or Kansas, Nebraska and California, because they are going to be the pivotal states this campaign? No, he could not. To a certain extent every state is pivotal every election and that presents the most impossible obstacle to a corruption so general that it would defeat the will of the majority of honest voters.

The late Candidate Hughes has had that letter written for some time. He has forgot to mail it, that's all.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, Nov. 24.—In a certain all night drug store on Eighth avenue where the night birds of the Tenderloin are wont to flock there appeared the other morning a chalky, fish-bellied man—once a famous jockey—but now slipping down the rungs through the use of drugs.

His eyes were dancing from heavy indulgence of cocaine, and all his nerves were leaping. He joined in the conversation and finally monopolized it. A corner policeman drifted in to see that all was quiet.

"Everything quiet along the Rialto?" he said cheerily.

The crowd, always in mortal fear of the police, agreed. In fact they would have sworn Hughes is clean shaven if the officer had even intimated that he thought so.

But the former jockey was in a stubborn mood. "Whadda you mean, all is quiet?" he said nervously, pulling at a frayed necktie. The policeman shot him a keen glance and remarked: "Full of 'snow' to the eyebrows again, eh? Well you'd better have 'em mix you a run out powder. Beat it!"

The drug user steeled and moved slowly toward the door. "Lemme tell you something," he said. "They never fly so high but what they have to fall. I never said I'd get a man yet that I didn't make good. You are my next man, you great big, fat-footed, pie-eyed, sausage-headed—"

By this time he thought he was near the door and turned suddenly and started to run. Instead he rushed right through a big plate-glass window. The officer rushed out expecting to see the man badly cut, if not killed by falling glass.

Instead he found him on the curb with a silly grin on his face. "Officer," he said, "did you see me, do that back flip off the Woolworth Tower? Rather clever, huh?" And he walked away arm in arm with the cop.

The Herald and the Sun are having a good-natured fling at each other editorially. The Sun for years has had under its name-plate: "It shines for all." The other day the Herald also ran a line on the first page: "It shines for all."

The Sun says editorially: "We understand that our contemporary is merely advertising the fact that it has now added a well-equipped and attractive bootblack parlor."

Lee Kugel has put over a show on Broadway. And it landed the wallop, too. When I was dramatic editor of the Evening Mail and Lee was the right hand man of Henry B. Harris, he used to send me palpitating pieces about his manager's productions. And most of them I printed, because he was one of the few press N. Y.

agents with a sense of news values.

"I haven't seen his show yet, and when I do I'll pay at the box office just as I do at all times. So this is not a free puff. But Lee's show must be a marvel. It is the story of an old lady who goes to a poorhouse, with all the scenes laid there. And it is full of sob. The idea of dramatizing an inmate of a poorhouse strikes me as novel. The name of the play is 'Old Lady 31.'"

Kugel was born and raised in St. Joseph, Mo. During the tense hours when it was not known whether Mr. Harris had gone down at sea, Kugel used to call me up every five minutes for information. At last I had to tell him the worst. And he sobbed like a child. Somehow I always have respect for a big, strong man who gives way to tears when the occasion demands.

A man had the audacity the other day to open up a shell game on a little stand on Broadway. He had collected a good-sized crowd when a detective came along and gathered him in. "Why don't you go down in Wall street and pinch some of those gamblers?" he yelled as he stepped into the wagon.

Out With the Morning

Out with the morning in spirit and heart,
Out with the morning to take up our part;
Out with the morning to seize every chance,
Out with the morning to bubble and dance,
Out with the morning to shine as it shines,
Out with the morning to climb with its vines,
Up to the sunlight and out to the air,
Cleansed of our trouble and purged of our care,
Strengthened and brightened and made men again
To face the world fighting as men among men,
To climb the steps singing a song at the start—
Out with the morning, with morn at the heart.

Keeping It Quiet

Little Margaret lived in a gossip neighborhood, and, being an observant child, she had got some ideas into her curly head. One day, having done something naughty, she was sent upstairs to confess her transgressions in prayer. "Did you tell God about it?" asked her mother, when she came down again. "Dond I didn't," she declared. "Why, it would have been all over heaven in no time."—Boston Transcript.

The Able Editor

"The editor of the Weekly Palladium—you remember him; round shouldered gent who 'peared to be always on the dead-run, even when he was sitting down—is pretty sick," stated the landlord of the Putnam tavern. "He has been kept lovable busy of late, editing his paper, tending the band, auctioneering occasionally, pulling teeth for his suffering subscribers while the dentist was off on a drunk and practicing osteopathy more or less—he took a course in that by mail about a year ago."

"Of course, he is a candidate for the post office and has taken part in the few joint debates recently, and acted as judge of a baby show last week and has been going to the depot 'most every time a train went through' and taking up a straw vote of the passengers, and so on. The doctor don't seem to know what is the matter with him, but I reckon he just nuchly spread himself out so thin that he snapped in two som'rs."—Kansas City Star.

Good Advice

"A minister was questioning his Sunday school concerning the story of Eutychus, the young man who listening to the preaching of the Apostle Paul, fell asleep, and falling out of a window was taken up dead."

"What," he asked, "do we learn from this solemn event?" The reply from a little girl came: "Please, sir, ministers should learn not to preach too long sermons."—Tit-Bits.

On Your What?

Two girls in a street car were in animated conversation. "Whatcha gonna wear?" "My striped skirt." "What else?" "My pink shirt waist." "Gonna wear a hair ribbon?" "I dunno, are you?" "I will if you do." "I ain't certain." "I ain't either." "I think I'll ask ma." "I'll ask my ma, too." "Got a red hair ribbon?" "Thuh." "I have, too." "Gonna wear it?" "I dunno." "You wear yours and I'll wear mine."

"Awright." One man in the seat behind the girls turned wearily to his companion. "Gee," he exclaimed, "it must be great to have nothing on your mind but a hair ribbon!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Need $25,000,000 To Complete Canalization Of The Ohio River

Active steps were taken at the annual convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, which convened in Huntington yesterday, to demand an appropriation of $25,000,000 to complete the canalization of the Ohio river, the valley through which it flows, was proclaimed the "workshop of the world."

Col. John L. Vance, in his annual report, stated that 21 dams in the system of canalization have been completed; thirteen in the process of completion; 12 for which sites have been selected and only 4 for which sites have not been selected.

Evansville, Ind., was selected as the next place for the next convention.

Addresses of welcome by Mayor E. Schenck and C. P. Snow, president of the Chamber of Commerce, with a response by Mayor George Purdum, of Cincinnati, together with appointment of committees, were other features of the morning session.

At yesterday's session, Col. Edgar J. Jadin, United States engineer, stationed at Pittsburgh, informed the delegates that Secretary of War Newton D. Baker is not opposed to the Ohio river canalization program, reports to the contrary notwithstanding. The war secretary, Col. Jadin, said, is fair and open-minded, a man who investigates both sides of every controversy, and who is with the association in its arguments.

Former Governor A. B. White, of Parkersburg, W. Va., in a brief speech, called the Ohio valley the "workshop of the world," and expressed a desire to see the Ohio river improvements complete in the present day.

Former Congressman James A. Hughes, of Huntington, was the first speaker at the afternoon session, which was opened shortly after two o'clock. Mr. Hughes lauded Col. Vance, and urged the necessity of "pushing" the congressmen at Washington to a realization of the demand for Ohio river appropriations.

Mr. Bettinger, of Cincinnati, reviewed briefly the career of the association and referred to the great achievements already made toward the 9-foot stage from Pittsburgh to Cairo. Mr. Bettinger recalled, he said, with regret, the change of attitude of Senator Burton, of Ohio, toward rivers and harbor appropriations, but in justice to Senator Burton it should be said that he excepted the Ohio river project and the Erie canal. Mr. Bettinger declared, however, that with the raising of the cry of "work" and the general onslaught on rivers and harbor appropriations, the Ohio river project, no matter how meritorious, had suffered along with the rest. The railroad, he declared, have never fought the river plans openly, but he added, they "are at work at this very moment."

"We must meet this opposition by demanding that the entire amount necessary to complete the canalization be appropriated and that the work proceed on the continuing contract system."

By the continuing contract system, Mr. Bettinger said he meant the appropriation of the entire amount necessary to canalize the river, and its disbursement as rapidly as it could be used by the engineers in charge of the work.

"It is senseless to proceed further in this piecemeal fashion," said Mr. Bettinger. "There will be no appreciable result until the whole work is done."

Hon. George K. Denton, congressman-elect from Evansville, declared he had already been convinced, the canalization of the Ohio river is the most important piece of work for congressmen along the river, and pledged his aid to the association with the statement that he is already a candidate for a position on the Rivers and Harbors committee.

Secretary Byrd Patterson, of the Lake Erie and Ohio River Canal Association, pictured a great inland route from New York to the Panama canal, and said the projected canal between the Ohio and Lake Erie would be a tremendously important tributary.

The business of the convention will close before noon today with the adoption of resolutions and the annual election of officers.

Capt. Burnside last night announced the expected arrival of the following boats today to take part in the "Steamboat Parade":

"Exporter," "Charles Brown" and "Greiner," of Pittsburgh Coal Company, by Capt. W. C. Glaser, district representative stationed in Huntington.

"J. T. Hatfield" and "Plymouth," by Capt. J. T. Hatfield, of Hatfield Coal Company.

"Catherine Davis," by Island Creek Fuel Company.

"Eugene Dana Smith" and "Robert P. Gilliam," by Campbell Creek Coal Company, of which Capt. Burnside is traffic manager.

Packet "Chris Greene" by Capt. Gordon Greene, of the Green Line.

"C. C. Bowyer," by Capt. Gardner.

If the "J. T. Hatfield" arrives it will be utilized as the flagship.

R. E. Thomas, Frank M. Bages and J. Arthur Bode, Portsmouth, were among the delegates at the meeting.

BOY RUN OVER BY AN AUTOMOBILE

Charles Homer Cox, aged 9 years, was knocked down and run over by an automobile near the home of his parents at 1408 Gallia street while on his way back from school Thursday evening about 4:45 o'clock.

The boy had just left the Union street school and in crossing Gallia street failed to observe Joseph Blume, a Long Run farmer, coming east in his touring car. Mr. Blume made desperate efforts to bring his car to a quick stop but the boy got directly in the path of the machine and was struck by it. Both wheels passed over his body. He was unconscious when found and was bleeding from a gaping scalp wound. Mr. Blume gathered him up in his arms and ran with him to Dr. Albert Berndt's office but that physician was absent. He then took the injured lad to Dr. J. E. Rogers, of Erie, where the boy was restored to consciousness. It was found he had not suffered any fractures but besides the large hole in his head he had sustained a number of bad bruises about the body and legs. He rested comparatively well through the night and was reported feeling better Friday morning though plainly showing the effects of the shock. He is a son of Charles Cox, a city auto deliveryman.

American Dye Industry On A Par With European, Says Prominent Official

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 24.—Women may now get practically all of the color effects in dress goods that were known before the war upset the dye industry, and will soon have every known color to choose from, all made in America fully as good in quality as those made in Germany or any other country, according to J. F. Stone, president of the National Aniline and Chemical Company, who addressed the National Silk Association convention here yesterday.

The seriousness of it, as it was viewed two years ago, has largely disappeared, he said. Large increases in production of dyestuffs by the already established factories in this country, and the installment of a large number of new factories, has so cleared the situation "that at the present time the production of the American factories will be enough to take care of the whole consumption of aniline dyes in this country in the future, for all of what I might term staple colors, and before another year has passed every color which is necessary to American consumers will be produced in this country."

In explaining the success of the American dye factories, Mr. Stone said that benzole, from which practically all aniline colors are derived, was now being produced in this country at the rate of 30,000,000 gallons per annum, as against 3,000,000 prior to the war, so that there is an ample supply of this basic material. From it are now being manufactured largely such intermediates as aniline oil, betanaphthol, parani, praniin, chlor-benzole, dimethylanilin and paraphenylenediamine, so that American manufacturers of colors are able to get sufficient raw materials to manufacture enough colors to supply the whole consumption.

"There is a popular impression," said Mr. Stone, "that American manufactured colors are not as good as those manufactured in Europe, Germany particularly, and this is an impression I wish to definitely correct, in that it is not a fact for American colors are made from practically the same chemical formula as the European colors and are practically the same product in every way."

"It has been particularly misunderstood by the public that American colors are not as fast as European colors were, and it seems to be the custom now for saleswomen and others in the stores, as well as the garment dyers, to specifically state that they do not guarantee colors, because they are no longer able to get the foreign colors. I wish to say that as far as I know, no manufacturer or retailer has ever guaranteed colors even before the war, although this fact may not have been mentioned, and the only reason it is mentioned now is through a misunderstanding of the situation. Such fancy colors as ladies usually want in silks, worsteds, etc., such as pinks, light blues, light greens, heliotrope, etc., were never fast, and as far as I know, there have never been any colors which would dye them fast. In any event, the word 'fast' is more or less a misnomer, as a color which is absolutely fast to everything, such as washing, fulling, light, exposure, alkalis, acids, etc., is practically unknown, so it is only comparative fastness which is meant in speaking of fast colors, and to this extent the present American colors, such as they are, are just as fast as the same colors made in Europe."

In connection with the high prices now charged by American manufacturers of colors, many consumers are under the impression that this is because of the

Arthur Nelson, colored, 18, who lives at the corner of Eleventh and Gay streets, is being held at the county jail, pending an investigation of the authorities into a charge preferred by Edward Hollingsworth, colored, 10, Waller and Sixteenth streets.

Hollingsworth claims that Nelson drove a ten penny nail into his back, while they were playing near the Nelson home last Monday afternoon. Nelson denies the allegation, claiming that Hollingsworth and himself had made arrangements to go to a picture show that afternoon and that he knew nothing of the charge made.

Hollingsworth is reported to be in a serious condition at his home. Dr. G. W. Martin is attending him.

Enjoyed Real Feast

A genuine opossum dinner was enjoyed by seven employees of the post-office Thursday evening at the Poodle restaurant, on Gallia street. It was an amazing how prompt those of the party met. The hour selected was six o'clock, and before the hands reached the hour, seven hungry and eager diners appeared at the restaurant.

Vallee Harold, postmaster, was the guest of honor. After enjoying the repast, he stated that after one experience with the 'possum hunters, he would hereafter take chances on attending the feast rather than tramp the hills in search of the game.

The menu consisted of: Roast 'possum, roast rabbit, brown gravy, celery, corn bread, sweet potatoes, fried potatoes, eye ballot, apples, quince, coffee and milk.

The statement comes from venerable Leonard Grover, in whose theatres Adelaide Nelson, Mary Anderson and other great Juliets have played. He asserts that no actress who has ever essayed the part has been arrayed in the regal splendor that envelops Miss Bayne in the eight-reel motion picture production of Shakespeare's great drama. The costumes of Francis X. Bushman as "Romeo" are equally rich, and those of the remainder of the cast are in keeping with them.

Romeo first sees Juliet in a ball-dress of silver tissue over which is a tabor overdress of white chiffon heavily beaded with silver and festooned with many crystal strands.
